No more heed of singing
When evening shadows creep;
Our cradle-bed is empty,
Our darling's gone to sleep.
Our little lamb's gone home.

Comesle. If you will, I can bear it.
'Tis a well meant alms of Breath,
But not all the preaching since Adam
Has made death other than death

ONE THOUGHT.

Though time may dig the grave of creeds
And dogmas wither in the sod,
My soul will keep the thought it needs,
Its swerveless faith in God.

No matter how the world began
Nor where the march of science goes,
My trust in something more than man
Shall help me bear life's woes.
