Daggy, Thomas
Fairfax Co.
Survey 6 Oct 1741 640 acres
Warrant 19 June 1741 2 Iams
To James Jenkins

Whereas, Joseph Jenkins, of the County of Anne W, hath informed that there are about five hundred acres of waste, navigable land, in the first County portion to Samuel Davis's late survey,

And to have a survey of the same, in order to have it surveyed. Whereupon the above is to be ordered, for the several estates. And the survey is to be made by the surveyor, and the survey is to be certified to the same effect. This has been ordered by the Bodely, leaning on the several parts, under the surveying officer, the 25th of December last. Signed under my hand, and in the Surveyor's office.

This 14th day of June, 1740.

[Signature]
By virtue of a Warrant from the Proprietors of the Lake, June 4th, 1764, to Messrs. Thomas Gage and Amos, Esqrs., Surveyors, for a grant of land, beginning at a Black Oak, on the shore of the lake, and extending in a line of Survey made by Samuel Heath, Thos. Heath, Thos. Heath, and Thos. Heath, over the land containing Thos. Heath's Farm, and all other land being Thos. Heath's Farm and all other land containing Thos. Heath's Farm, to the north-west corner of the land containing Thos. Heath's Farm and all other land containing Thos. Heath's Farm.

A. B. The first station.

Surveyed by Thos. Gage, Esq., Surveyor.

[Diagram of land boundary with marks and names of individuals involved in the survey process.]