To Amos Janney

Whereas Thomas Gregg, Jr., of the County of Pennsylvania, doth inform that there are about

Five hundred acres of west and adjoining land in the said County, paying to Amos Janney,

Entry

This is to certify that you, Amos Janney, have made a true and accurate survey of the said

land, and do hereby give you leave to proceed with the survey of the same, and to require you to make a correct description of Describing the several bounds of

According to the several surveys and descriptions of Thomas Gregg, Jr., and to do any and all other which you are to do when you can. You are to continue your pre-sessions to make your 2d more accurate or parallelogram.

And you must return this warrant with this warrant before the 1st of December.

[Signature]

William Cobb

[Signature]

S. T. Rust

[Signature]

September 1746

Page 19
By Virtue of a Warrant from the Governor of this Province, I, David Gregg, Surveyor General for this Province, on the 31st Day of May, 1760, began to survey the bounds of a tract of land belonging to Dr. John King, lying in the County of Kent, in the town of St. John's, in the Province of New York.

The bounds of this tract of land are as follows:

1. Beginning at a stake on the South side of the river of Conestoga, thence South 52° 50' West to the line of John King, thence North 52° 50' East to a stake in the river, thence South 52° 50' West to the line of John King, thence North 52° 50' East to a point on the South side of the river of Conestoga, thence South 52° 50' West to the beginning.

The tract of land so described contains 100 acres.

David Gregg, Surveyor General.

July 24th, 1760.