Robert Booth
Plot: 600 Acre
April 9, 1751

By virtue of a warrant from the Proprietors Office dated the 1st day of January, 1751, have surveyed for Augustus Booth, Esq., of the county of Baltimore, the hundred acres of land described lying and being in the district town, and bounded as follows: Beginning at a double black oak tree and two white oak trees, standing on a hill about fifty paces from the mouth and near a creek commonly called the Dutchman's Creek. Thence, standing up the Chickahominy River 400 paces to two white oak trees, thence 300 paces to a white oak tree and a white oak tree, thence 200 paces to two white oak trees, thence 100 paces to two white oak trees and a red oak on the face of the Chickahominy Creek, from thence down the West Bank 300 paces to three white oak trees on the bank of a branch. Thence 250 paces to a red oak, white oak, and a gum on the divide, branch of the Chickahominy Creek, and down the South Bank 300 paces 250 paces to two

Surveyed:

[Signature]

James Thomas, Esq.