Whereas Richard Farthing of Essex County, hath at my request, and in my name, this 10th day of December, set down, on the Blues Ridge, through the Branches of the Broad Run of Botetourt,

And having made a warrant to survey the same, being ready to pay the Surveyor's fees.

Held are therefore to empower you to survey the said land for said Farthing; provided this be a just warrant to go for the said land, upon return of your survey with the bounds, cause of difference through the said Richard Farthing, upon paying down the necessary Surveyor's charges, so have a deed duly executed for the said land, at any time between the date hereof and the second day of August next ensuing.

Given under my hand and seal of office this second day of February, 1732.

[Signature]

For John Warner

May 10th of the county

1732

Description of a Broad run of Botetourt County,Virginia:

(A) 2 white oaks and one red oak on one of 12 man's hides of Broad run, north bounds, Fathers Lane, containing

73° W 666 to (B) a Spanish oak N 17 W 666 to (C) a white oak, then W 83° E 680 to (D) Black Oak, then S 72° E 320 to (E) of beginning containing

One thousand four hundred and ninety-eight acres.

June 19th 1731

[Signature]
By Virtue of a Warrant from the Proprietors Office, dated 2nd day of Oct. 1731, granted unto Richard Harling of Pinkney and.RequestBody assigned unto Richard Harling of Pinkney, Surveyed for P. Carter and containeth a parcel of Land situate in Prince William County on the branch of Broad Run of Potomac bounded as follows: Beginning at (A) a white Oak and one 30 foot on one of two main branches of Broad Run right lines to (B) a Short Oak 90 feet to (C) a white Oak 90 feet to (D) a Black Oak then 320 feet to the beginning containing One thousand four hundred and ninety-eight acres.

June 19th, 1731

[Signature]

County