Whereas Patrick Lynch, of the County of Finn: hath a right to a Prop. Office that there is one thousand acres of land in the same county which is not yet marked on the Branches of Limepole Run above Goose Creek.

And having moved for a writ to survey the same being ready to pay the composition of Offenders.

We do hereupon empower you to survey the said land for the said Lynch, provided you first warrant, that you pay the same; and upon return of your survey, with the boundaries, course and distances thereof, the said Lynch, upon paying down four hundred dollars, to have a deed duly executed for the said land and a copy thereof from the date hereon and the second day of August next ensuing.

Given under my Hand and seal of Office
This second 1 Day of February, 1731

Robert Harrett

To survey the same:
