To Mr. Ann Amory

Whereas Ann Sinclair of Boscawen, William Amory thereunto, shall, to inspect the same, the thereof within the bounds of a certain tract of land granted to Margaret Amory, his wife, by William 12th March 1742 - for 400 acres, and directing a survey may be made thereof in order to have an indenture made.

There are to empower Mr. Thos. Amory with the same power
make a true, full, and accurate survey thereof, and to describe the aforesaid bounds in

"To Mr. Ann Amory"

"Thos. Amory"

A Scale of 400 acres
By Virtue of a Warrant from the Secretary Office dated March 15th 1700. John S. recorded. Theodora Farm & survey of part of land formerly granted to Margaret Rabble, W. of Anne Johnson for 216 acres.

Beginning at a Red Oak, 124  1/2 and 5A, standing on the N. of the above line, then John Tutman, Thos. Lathe and Jonathan Tutman W. 50 yards to B. which 30 Perch Round the above N. 50 yards to D. An Indian Tree 5D, FA standing near the North side of Creek Run, Thos. 50 yards to E. Three white oak at the mouth of Creek Run, 50 yards to the first station, containing 28 acres.

Surveyed sometime in September 1797.

By Amos Ramsey.
