Whereas Thomas judging, King George County, hath in his hands to a proprietor's office the three hundred and ten acres of land described above, which is not yet granted to the owner of the same, and which lies between lands of John Newcome, George Preece, and Edward Gaynor.

And having moved for a warrant to survey the same, being ready to pay the composition of office fees.

Hereunto I do subscribe you to survey said land for the said Thomas judging, provided you shall sign your name on survey with the bounds courses and distances there of. The said Thomas judging, upon paying down for composition of office charges, is to have a deed duly executed for the said land at any time between the same of the seventeenth day of August next ensuing.

Given under my hand and seal as Surveyor of King George County, the twenty-first day of August, 1731.
