Whereas, John Toward of Stafford County, does, for the sum of five hundred and fifty dollars, to me, John Toward, in the County of Stafford on the head of a small Branch of the Broad River of Beaver, and the head of a small Branch of the River of Choke, which is obstructed.

This is in consideration of the said sum of money, the same being ready to pay the present and all other fees.

WILL therefore empower you to survey the said land for the said John Toward, provided he shall promise to pay the fees for the same, and upon receipt of your survey, to make the bounds, survey, and delivery thereof, to the said John Toward, upon paying the proper sum of money and all other charges, as to have a deed duly executed for the said land at any time between the date hereof and the nineteenth Day of May next ensuing.

Given under my hand at the office of surveyor of the this nineteenth Day of November 1730

Robert Carter

Surveyor's Name

[Surveyor's Seal]

[Surveyor's Name]

[Surveyor's Seal]

March 30th, 1731