Northern Neck of Virginia—
Registrar's Office.
Whose by John Raffol.

Whereas John Young, of Accomac County, hath informed that there are about two hundred acres of Black Spring Granted Land, joining his own land, Col. Richard Blackburn's tier. The land formerly appertained to Col. Luttrell, and the land of Anne Page Cary, on the division of Bull Run, and Bread Run in Prince William County.

And having a warrant to survey the same, ordered to obtain a deed, being ready to pay the Commissioner for the same. I hereby do empower you to survey the said Black Spring Granted Land for the said John Young, paying due regard to your instructions, a deed of which Survey with this Warrant you are to return to this Office, or before the 1st Day of March next—Given under my hand, the 1st Day of March 1760.

Wm. Molyneux

[Survey Plan]

---

John Young

Brig. Armig

James Greaves

John Young

10th April 1760
By virtue of a warrant from the Proprietary Office to me dated Sep 23rd 1809 for John Young of Angwin County in the Town of St. Helens, during his term of service, a tract of land belonging to John Young, being part of the land described by him to John Young, surveyed and described as follows:

Beginning at a white oak corner to the south of Young's land, and bounded by

A. A white oak corner to the south of Young's land
B. A white oak corner to the north of Young's land
C. A white oak corner to the east of Young's land
D. A white oak corner to the west of Young's land

The tract containing One hundred acres.

John Young,

Beg. Mark'd 23d Sept 1809
John Young

Surveyor
John Young's Pet
of 96

Enty & Mt. Feb 10
Q.Issue

Drawn 2d