By virtue of a warrant from the Privy Council office, the 17th of Jan. 1724/5, surveyed for Mr. Alexander Bell, of the County of Stafford, 110 acres of land, lying and being in said county aforesaid on the branches of Cedar Run. Adjoining to a tract of land lately surveyed for Mr. In. Bell, to be bounded as follows: Beginning at a marked hickory f a red, being corner to the N. W. of Bell's land, and running thence N. 70° W. 128 p. to a white oak f a hickory standing at the foot of a broken hill, thence N. 20° E. 149 p. to another white oak f hickory standing nigh a large stone of rock, thence N. 80° E. 174 p. to a red oak, thence S. 80° E. 260 p. to a white oak at the foot of a small mountain, thence S. 25° W. 395 p. to a white oak in the line of land of said Mr. In. Bell, thence running thence W. 33° W. 245 p. to the first station as in the plat annexed. August the 23d, 1725.

[Signature]
Mu. Savage
Pa. County Surveyor

[Diagram of land survey with labeled directions and distances]