Whereas Thomas Harvey, of the county of Stafford, hath set forth to the prop. office that there is two hundred acres of land in the said county which is not yet granted, lying on one of the small branches of Little Runing Creek known by the name of Timber Branch, agreeing by land of Longman Brent

And having moved for a warrant to survey the same, being ready to pay composition office fees. I therefore to impart to you to survey the land for the said Harvey, provided this be the first warrant. hath paid for the same and upon return of your survey with the bounds, courses and distances from the S. Thomas River, upon paying down the composition and office fees is to have a deed duly executed for the land and any time between the date hereof and the tenth day of January next ensuing

To Mr.
John Warner Surveyor of the county of Stafford To survey the same

Given under my hand and the seal of the office the twentieth day of July 1729.

Robert Carter
By Virtue of a warrant of the proprietors of the said land, to the county of the county of Philadelphia, London for the county of the county of Bucks, in Wards of the said land, being bounded by a line running from A in a straight line to the land of Alex. M. Cuyler and Running through C with his land S E 120 feet, E

Spanish Oak, then N 30° E 40° to a willow in a swamp, then N 180° to a white Oak by a trail

E 40° to another willow on a small then S 33° E 104 feet.

Lying East 135 Acres