Davies, William

Stafford Co.

Survey 26 July 1728

Warrant date from survey 15 Nov. 1727

200 acres

1 item
By virtue of a Warrant from the Proprietary Office, dated 25th of November 1727, David Cups, Surveyor, Esq. of the County of New York, purchased two hundred acres of land lying and being on the south side of Bull Run in the said county, and erroneously described as follows viz.:

"Beginning at a marked hickory tree standing near the corner of a branch called Blue Hen Branch, running down into the said Bull Run, and near a place called Iona, supposed to be the land of Capt. John Hooper, deed and extending thence S.S.W. 134 poles to a small black oak near the head of a branch thence, N.E.S. 12 poles to a white oak in the fork of a branch called Winter Branch, thence N. 62 east 136 poles to a white oak near the place of a said figure, thence S. 83 E. 73 poles to a small black oak, thence N. 18.30 west 243 poles to the place it begins, standing and being two hundred acres of land, to be the East Amended.

Surveyed by me.
James Thomas Jr. of WC