England, John
Stafford Co.
Survey 12 Sept. 1727
33.3 acres
Warrant date from survey 7 March 1726/7
1 item
By virtue of a warrant from the proprietor's office, dated the 7th day of March 1727, issued for 333 acres of land, lying and being on a branch of Potomac run, known by the name of Rocky Branch in Fairfax County. It is bounded on the east by Green's land, on the west by the land of Bryant Young, high a Rocky Cave, on the south by the land of James Harvey. Extending thence along of the young's lands N 36° W 153 1/2 p. to B and pine at the head of a valley. N 6° E 130 p. to A pole of a branch to C and pine on a ridge. Thence to Young's, thence to the land of James Within, thence along of Within's lands N 17° 10' W 177 1/2 p. to D and pine. W 36° E 34 p. to E and pine, N 6° E 34 p. to F a white oak on the N. Side of a branch, N 2° W 168 p. to G branch to F a white oak on the Within's line, thence to the land of Bryant Young, thence thence thence thence to the land of James Harvey, thence thence thence thence to the first station as laid out Annand, September 8, 15th, 1727.

[Signature: S. C. Surv.]
M. Mr. England's
Platt & Survey for
823 Acres on 2 Rivers
Branch Surveyed
9th Dec. 1727

D. J. S.