Whereas I, William Harrison, of the County of Hartford, did faithfully execute the Prop. Hereof in the Hundred of New Land, in the State of Connecticut, a Grant of Right, granted by the Proprietors of the Town of Farmington, for a tract of Land, about 120 Miles above the City of Boston, near the broken hills, being the place where William W. Harriso was born.

The following persons, William, John, and Henry, being ready to pay the composition due for the same, were duly sworn to by the Probate Justice, and were ordered to make a survey of the same, and to return the same to the Surveyor of the County of Hartford, for a complete description of the same, and in the mean time, the said William, John, and Henry, upon paying the composition, to have the same Surveyed, and to return it to the Surveyor of the County of Hartford, at any time between the first day of July and the first day of November in the year 1727.

This 10th day of July, 1727.

James Thomas, Surry.
At County of Hartford.
