By virtue of a warrant from the Treasurer's Office dated 1727, Surveyed for John Aubry, Plaintiff of the 320 acres of land lying in the County of Hampshire, Virginia, bounded by lands of the county. The land is surveyed on a branch, running out of the lower line of the land as shown on the plan. The land is bounded as follows: Beginning at a mark on the branch, running in a line of 160 rods, hence up the branch, according to the several courses shown on the plan, to a fish pond on the branch, hence 100 rods to a tree, hence 200 rods to a tree, hence 200 rods to a tree, hence 100 rods to a tree, hence 300 rods to a tree, hence 200 rods to a tree, hence 200 rods to a tree, hence 100 rods to a tree, hence 300 rods to a tree, hence 200 rods to a tree, hence to the beginning.

Surveyed 1727.

John Aubry

[Signature]

Surveyor of Hampshire County

The Land

Area 320 acres

A is the beginning
AB is the 1st course
BC is the 3rd course
The plat of Geo. Meson's land on the lower branches of the Broad run of Potomac 320