By Virtue of a Warrant from the proprietors. Here survey'd for Mr. London Carter, and certain land of land situate in Prince William County, above Goose Creek on the right side of Swan creek branch, and joining the land of Jacob Laswell. The said land being bounded as follows: Beginning at

(A) a black oak, and a small white oak from trees to the land of Mr. Francis Clark, and running thence with 39 acres, to (B) a small red oak and a great oak standing on a point, and another branch of Mr. Clark, thence to (C) a red oak on a small hill, thence (D) a white oak on a small hill, (E) a white oak on a low hill, (F) a white oak on a small hill, (G) a red oak on a small hill, (H) an arbor and white oak, thence to (I) a white oak, thence to (J) a white oak, and from thence to (K) a white oak, thence to (L) a white oak, from thence south to (M) a white oak, and thence north, from (N) a white oak, and from thence to (O) a red oak, and from thence to (P) a red oak branch, thence to (Q) a red oak branch, and from thence to (R) a white oak, and from thence to (S) a white oak, and from thence to (T) a white oak, and from thence to (U) a white oak, and from thence to (V) a white oak, and from thence south, from (W) a hundred and ninety-three acres, as the Surveyor's Warrant was made to (X) a white oak, and from thence to the beginning. Containing Two thousand three hundred and ninety-three acres.

Ap. 30th 1731

Very little good land in this not about 700 acres. Several large oaks of Copper live stock, as the Surveying Warrant was lying in the street, and it could not be otherwise, as people would have had it for all the bannerness.
