By Virtue of a Warrant from the Proprietors of the said County of Virginia, Surveyed for Thomas Ashby a certain tract of Land lying in the said County upon the South side of James River, joinging to the Land of W. Landon Carter, bounded as follows: Beginning at (A) the southwesterly corner of W. Landon Carter's upper corner on James River and running thence the various winders of the River upwards to (B) a white oak and a stone oak near the mouth of a great branch, thence S 87° E 160 p. to (C) thence under the banks N 39° E 1030 p. to (D) a red oak and double beside white oak on the point of the mountain corner of W. Landon Carter then with his line S 83° W 334 p. to the beginning containing Twelve hundred sixty nine acres.

Nov. 29th 1733

[Signature]

[County]